

2023 Lake Host Program Boater Survey Report - Kolelemook Lake

Survey Results			Percent of total inspections
Boat Type	Non-Motor	65	75%
	Motor	22	25%
	Motorboats with Ballast	3	3%
State of Motorized Boat Registration	NH	20	23%
	MA	1	1%
	ME	0	0%
	VT	0	0%
	CT	0	0%
	NY	0	0%
	Other	1	1%
Prevention Measures Taken	Cleaned	87	100%
	Drained	87	100%
	Dry	70	80%
Total Arriving		56	64%
Total Departing		31	36%
Total Inspections:		87

Inspections by Time Block
	4:00am-6:00am	6:00am-8:00am	8:00am-10:00am	10:00am-12:00pm	12:00pm-2:00pm	2:00pm-4:00pm	4:00pm-6:00pm	6:00pm-8:00pm
Sunday	0	0	0	5	0	12	7	0
Monday	0	0	4	6	0	3	0	0
Tuesday	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Wednesday	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Thursday	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Friday	0	0	0	0	0	2	2	1
Saturday	0	1	1	7	0	7	0	0

Note: Variations in data collection can influence outcome measures. Categories may not add up to 100%, or reflect the amount of total inspections, due to these variations.

2023 Lake Host Program Boater Survey Report - Kolelemook Lake

Note: This database was made possible by the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services, Maine Department of Environmental Protection, Vermont Department of Environmental Conservation, Massachusetts Department of Conservation & Recreation, Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station, Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management, and New York Department of Environmental Conservation. Survey methods vary from state to state and, as a result, may occasionally contain unintentional inaccuracies. Please contact NH LAKES directly to report a correction at lakehost@nhlakes.org.

Relationships to Waterbodies in the North East with an aquatic invasive species (as a total of all inspections):					3.45%
Waterbody	AIS Status	Species Common Name	Total Count	Count Arriving from	Count Departing to
Connecticut River Multiple Locations NH/VT	Infested	Eurasian Milfoil, European Naiad, Didymo, Curly-leaf Pondweed, Water Chestnut	1	1	0
Mascoma Lake Enfield NH	Infested	Eurasian Milfoil	1	1	0
Rockybound Pond Croydon NH	Infested	Curly-leaf Pondweed	1	1	0